

Fatwa No. 4229

Q: One of the idol worshippers met us and said: "Allah has sent His Prophet (peace be upon him) to all people as a bringer of good tidings and a warner. Allah ordered him to prevent idol worshipping. But He left the Black Stone in the corner of Ka'bah to be kissed and visited and that people may perform Du'a' (supplication to Allah) there. Why did He leave the Black Stone? He did so because those who worship idols do not intend idols with worship. But they worship idols to be a means between Allah (may He be Exalted and Glorified) and them." He added: "If this is so, then the Black Stone and the idols are similar." Therefore, I sent you this question in order to know your answer that I may be guided and guide others.

A: `Ibadah (worship) is to obey Allah, carry out His commands, abstain from what He prohibits, obey the commands of the prophet (peace be upon him), follow his example in what he did of good deeds, regard as lawful what He considers to be lawful and to regard as unlawful what He decreed to be unlawful. This should be out of hope for His reward and out of fear of His punishment. Allah says: ﴿ They (Jews and Christians) took their rabbis and their monks to be their lords besides Allāh (by obeying them in things which they made lawful or unlawful according to their own desires without being ordered by Allâh), and (they also took as their Lord) Messiah, son of Maryam (Mary), while they (Jews and Christians) were commanded [in the Taurât (Torah) and the Injeel (Gospel)] to worship none but One Ilâh (God ? Allâh) Lâ ilâha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). Glorified is He (far above is He) from having the partners they associate (with Him).)It was authentically reported that the Prophet (peace be upon him) kissed and touched the Black Stone during his circumambulation around the Ka'bah out of obedience to Allah. The Companions followed the example of the Prophet (peace be upon him) in this regard out of obedience to Allah in carrying out the rites. They did not do so to glorify the Black Stone without legislation from Allah. Therefore, `Umar Ibn Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) said his famous saying: "By Allah I know that you are but a stone that brings no benefit and causes no harm. Had it not been that I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) kissing you, I would not have kissed you." Consequently, kissing and touching the Black Stone in Tawaf (circumambulation around the Ka `bah) is one of the rites of Hajj and an act of worship, and likewise Tawaf whether in Hajj or 'Umrah (lesser pilgrimage) and directing one' face towards Ka'bah in Salah and Du'a' (supplication to Allah). A person is not allowed to turn their face or back towards Ka'bah while urinating or defecating. All these are acts of worship and obedience to Allah (may He be Exalted) by following His command and abstaining from what He prohibits. Muslims do not do this by their own free will. Moreover, the prostration of the angels to Adam (peace be upon him) was an act of worship to Allah and obedience to His command to prostrate.

The angels did not do so as an act of worship to Adam. When Iblis (Satan) refused to prostrate for Adam, Allah was angry and cursed him. All these acts of worship were not to use the Black Stone, Ka'bah and Adam (peace be upon him) as a means to drive us closer to Allah in position. They are all but to obey Allah in His legislation and to follow His commands. This is different from the worship of disbelievers to idols. They do so out of their free will in order to satiate their desires without guidance from Allah. However, Allah prohibits doing so for them and threatens them with painful chastisement for it. He (may He be Exalted) sent His messengers to get rid of these idols and to fight those who worship anyone other than Allah to bring them closer to Allah in position. Thus, how can we compare what Allah commands to what He prohibits! How far is the relationship between this and that. It is similar to one thing and its opposite.

Exalted is your Lord, the Lord of might, above what they describe. Peace be upon the Messengers. Praise is to The Lord of the worlds.

May Allah grant us success! May peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, and Companions!
